Master Ray Gayle is a seventh degree black belt and has been training in Taekwon-Do for thirty years. He competed very successfully for a number of years at a national and international level achieving British and European titles and the award of International Fighter of the Year. He no longer competes, but is devoted to passing on his knowledge of Taekwon-Do to other people. His proudest moment in Taekwon-Do was meeting, and being graded to sixth degree by, the (now late) founder of Taekwon-Do Major General Choi Hong Hi. He was awarded his seventh degree in April 2005 by Master Choi Jung Hwa, the son of the founder.
